

Attn: Patients

A patient may ask for an estimate of the amount the patient will be charged for a non-emergency medical service provided in this practitioner's office.

The law requires that an estimate be provided within 5 business days.

